Pray for Seminarians

O Lord Jesus Christ, great High Priest, I pray that you call many worthy souls to your holy priesthood. Enlighten the Bishop and Vocation Director in the choice of candidates, the Spiritual Directors in molding them, and the professors in instructing them. Lead the seminarians daily in your unerring footsteps, so that they may become priests who are models of purity, possessors of wisdom, and heroes of sacrifice. May they be steeped in humility and aflame with love for God and man, apostles of your glory, and sanctifiers of souls. Mary, Queen of the Clergy, pray for us. Amen.

This Sunday we are transitioning. This Thursday marks the Ascension of the Lord 40 days after Easter. (Our diocese transfers the celebration to Sunday). After the 40 days instructing the Apostles and disciples, Jesus ascended into heaven, but instructs the apostles to remain in the city until they have "power from on high." This time reminds us that we cannot live the Christian life without Jesus. Without him we can do nothing.

Jesus ascends to heaven on the 40th day of Easter. 40 is a biblical number of fulfillment. Jesus has given them all that they need. However, the apostles don't seem to think so. They stare into heaven wanting something more. Jesus promised them what they need and this is why they are asked to pray for the 'advocate.' Jesus wants them to participate rather than do everything for them. They are called into a new activity empowered by God the Holy Spirit.

Christians today also experience a lack. In seminary I felt this once. I knew in my heart I was lacking. No one seemed to be able to help me figure out what it was. I prayed until I felt that Mary would help me find what I was lacking. Mary was in the upper room praying with the Apostles for the coming of the Holy Spirit. I believe she helped them offer this prayer. She certainly helped me.

Jesus instructed the Apostles to pray after his Ascension. They prayed from the Ascension until the Spirit came at Pentecost 9 days later. This formed the first novena. We should pray with the Apostles for the Holy Spirit like the Apostles did. To make the Pentecost Novena we should begin praying on Ascension Thursday (May 9th) even though in our diocese the celebration takes place on Sunday. Observing Pentecost on Ascension day (40th day after Easter) will make 9 days of prayer until the Vigil of Pentecost on Saturday May 18.

How to prepare for Pentecost. I think the best preparation is to pray. You can pray a formal novena prayer. This is helpful to have something to do every day. However, I think it is really important to make it personal. When I prayed to Mary to help me find what I was lacking, I didn't really know what I was doing. I only knew I needed something which I could not find. I believe it was the Holy Spirit though I didn't know it at the time. I asked Mary to help me find what I was lacking, what felt empty. What the Holy Spirit gave me through Mary's help, was a newfound faith. I experienced Jesus like I never did before. For the first time I also experienced that God really is Father. I didn't learn more about God in a book. What the Holy Spirit did was bring me to experience mysteries that were previously obscure. It is difficult for me to communicate in words what this is. I can tell you I would not trade it for anything. It was like becoming truly alive for the first time.

I urge you to pray for the coming of the Holy Spirit in your life and in the church. Pray every day for this starting Thursday May 9th until Pentecost. One way is to be very honest about where you are, and what you lack in the spiritual life. When I prayed to Mary for help I just kept pointing out I was missing something and that I was told she could help me. I prayed with the faith I had found with confidence that I would find what I was missing though no human seemed to be able to assist me. That's kind of the point. Jesus was leading the apostles to newfound faith in God. That is what he was leading me in, and what I believe he wants to lead each of us to.
