Prayer for Hurricane Season
O God, Master of this passing world, hear the humble voices of your children. The Sea of Galilee obeyed your order and returned to its former quietude. You are still the Master of land and sea. We live the shadow of a danger over which we have no control: the gulf, like a provoked and angry giant, can awake from its seeming lethargy, overstep its conventional boundaries, invade our land and spread chaos and disaster. During this hurricane season we turn to you, loving Father. Spare us from past tragedies whose memories are still so vivid and whose wounds seem to refuse to heal with the passing of time. O Virgin, Star of the Sea, Our Beloved Mother, we ask you to plead with your Son in our behalf, so that spared from the calamities common to this area and animated with a true spirit of gratitude, we will walk in the footsteps of your divine Son to reach heavenly Jerusalem where a stormless eternity await us.
Amen.
Imprimatur: August 29, 1967

Prayer for Priests

Eternal Father, we lift up to You these and all the priests of the world. Sanctify them. Heal and guide them. Mold them into the likeness of Your Son, Jesus, the Eternal High Priest. May their lives be pleasing to You. In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

Pray for Seminarians

O Lord Jesus Christ, great High Priest, I pray that you call many worthy souls to your holy priesthood. Enlighten the Bishop and Vocation Director in the choice of candidates, the Spiritual Directors in molding them, and the professors in instructing them. Lead the seminarians daily in your unerring footsteps, so that they may become priests who are models of purity, possessors of wisdom, and heroes of sacrifice. May they be steeped in humility and aflame with love for God and man, apostles of your glory, and sanctifiers of souls. Mary, Queen of the Clergy, pray for us. Amen.

CCC 336. From its beginning until death, human life is surrounded by [the angels'] watchful care and intercession. Beside each believer stands an angel as protector and shepherd leading him to life. Already here on earth the Christian life shares by faith in the blessed company of angels and men united in God.

October 27

You must strive with all possible care to please God in such a manner as neither to do nor behold anything, without first consulting Him, and in everything to seek Him alone and His glory.

- St. Alphonsus Rodriguez (1532 -1617), Jesuit Brother, Feast Day October 31

Much could be said about the trials of our times. In fact, much has been said. There is a loss of the sense of right and wrong. Many are far from God and mock or outright persecute any religious sense. We even seem once more to be teetering on the edge of war in the middle east. At the same time God is at work in a mysterious way. God is at work in ways we would not expect or choose, just as when Jesus achieved our salvation. He did it unexpectedly through His passion. Our faith is tested through suffering. At the same time, it is refined, made perfect so that even Satan's own works serve to produce his defeat.

Throughout the world today we see the original lies of Satan manifested through 'cleverly designed myths' (cf. 2 Peter 1:16). For example, we place greater emphasis on our online social media persona's and neglect how we actually appear. As a Christian we are called to follow not cleverly designed myths, but Jesus Christ. Satan wants to keep moving forward never noticing the man behind the curtain. Satan is behind many of the trends we follow today. He wants us to keep moving forward without ever stopping because then we may realize something is wrong. On the other hand, we live in a church with sinful people. That is a real problem but when we slow down and consider the church we can experience corruption, but we also see the crucified Jesus Christ.

The glory of God is not that the church is without any corruption. The glory of God is His ability to use sinful human beings despite ourselves. It is the glory of God that He can use our own weakness to save us. That is a far greater power than the ability to corrupt and destroy which is what Satan does. "The wisdom of the cross is folly to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved it is the power of God" (1 Corinthians 1:18).

How do we get out of the pit which we have dug ourselves into? For one we have to learn to step back and examine ourselves and our surroundings through faith. God brings light to even the darkest places. In fact, his light burns most brightly. However, we do need to slow down to receive it. Breathe. Open the eyes of your heart and listen. Pay attention to your thoughts and feelings then listen. God speaks into the depths of our hearts, but it is easily missed if we are listening to the noise around us. Think of Jesus asleep in the stern of the boat with the apostles when the waves were crashing over the bow. The apostles were terrified, but they need not have been. Jesus stilled the waves in a moment. How could Jesus sleep, because of his relationship with the Father that we are invited to share.

Living our faith in these confusing times is difficult. It might be more difficult than any other time in history, but it also has the most grace. Because of the difficulties that we face, God is granting us graces that no other generations had the benefit of. These graces were reserved for our times, for you and for me. All we need to do is ask. Actually, I think God gives us these graces even if we slightly move in his direction. He is more eager to aid us than we realize. I believe that in our times we will have the greatest saints that ever were. You may think this a ridiculous idea. However, it is not because we have practically perfect people. It is because the greatest saint is not necessarily the one with the greatest prayer and virtue. The greatest saints are those who achieve great holiness with the least favorable conditions. God sends us these saints to help the rest of us.

We are not lost. We are not forgotten. It is true that waves of Satan and the world are crashing over the bow of the boat. Many of us feel frightened or terrified, but brothers and sisters, Jesus is in the boat. He will never leave us even if we leave Him.

Living with Jesus in these times requires deep faith. The angels in heaven marvel at what God is doing. We can scarcely imagine, but we will. In the meantime, what can we do? Repent. Go to confession. Make reparation for sin. Pray the rosary. Implore the Lord's mercy upon us. Ask God to intervene. Read scripture and God will teach you through it how to interpret what is going on. Attend Mass and visit Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament. These are the things we need to do. I will leave you with the words of Psalm 18[17], which exemplifies the attitude we all need to take.

I love you, Lord, my strength;
<sup>3</sup> O Lord, my rock, my fortress, my savior;
my God, my rock where I take refuge;
my shield, my saving strength, my stronghold.
<sup>4</sup> I cry out, "O praised be the Lord!"
and see, I am saved from my foes.
