Pray daily for the souls in purgatory

O LORD God almighty, I pray Thee, by the Precious Blood which Thy Divine Son Jesus shed in the garden, deliver the souls in purgatory, and especially that soul amongst them all which is most destitute of spiritual aid; and vouchsafe to bring it to Thy glory, there to praise and bless Thee forever. Amen.

Fatima Rosary will be prayed on Saturday, November 23 at noon at City Hall

Prayer for Priests

Eternal Father, we lift up to You these and all the priests of the world. Sanctify them. Heal and guide them. Mold them into the likeness of Your Son, Jesus, the Eternal High Priest. May their lives be pleasing to You. In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

Pray for Seminarians

O Lord Jesus Christ, great High Priest, I pray that you call many worthy souls to your holy priesthood. Enlighten the Bishop and Vocation Director in the choice of candidates, the Spiritual Directors in molding them, and the professors in instructing them. Lead the seminarians daily in your unerring footsteps, so that they may become priests who are models of purity, possessors of wisdom, and heroes of sacrifice. May they be steeped in humility and aflame with love for God and man, apostles of your glory, and sanctifiers of souls. Mary, Queen of the Clergy, pray for us. Amen.

November 17

Let us teach the young in the school of the fear of the Lord.

- Pope Clement I, (died 101 AD), Patron of Mariners, Feast Day November 23

CCC 336. From its beginning until death, human life is surrounded by [the angels'] watchful care and intercession. Beside each believer stands an angel as protector and shepherd leading him to life. Already here on earth the Christian life shares by faith in the blessed company of angels and men united in God.

“My heart's desire and prayer to God for them is that they may be saved.” Romans 10:1

The month of November, traditionally is given to prayer for the souls in Purgatory. We remember the souls who have made it to heaven on the Solemnity of All Saints (November 1) and souls in Purgatory on the Commemoration of all the Faithful Departed (November 2). Prayers can and should be offered for the Holy Souls throughout the year, but November is a time for us to call them to mind in a particular way.

Have you ever noticed how the church bells Toll at 9:00? Have you wondered why? The nine o'clock hour is a time traditionally devoted to praying for the souls of the faithful departed. Similar to the Angelus, there is a prayer traditionally said as the bells ring 9 times. This prayer is called the De Profundis, Latin for “out of the depths.” It is the text of Psalm 129 (or 130 depending on your translation).

Out of the depths I have cried to Thee, O Lord! Lord, hear my voice! Let thy ears be attentive to the voice of my supplications! If thou, O Lord, Shouldst mark iniquities, Lord, who could stand? But there is forgiveness with thee, that thou mayest be feared. I wait for the Lord, my soul waits, and in his word I hope; my soul waits for the Lord more than the watchmen for the morning. O Israel, hope in the Lord! For with the Lord there is steadfast love, and with him is plenteous redemption. And he shall redeem Israel from all his iniquities. Glory be to the Father...

Another prayer which can be offered for the dead and which we recite at funerals is the Requiem Æternam:

Eternal rest grant unto him/her (them), O Lord; and let perpetual light shine upon him/her (them). May he/she (they) rest in peace. Amen.

It is an act of charity to pray for the dead. I think that frequently people forget to pray for the dead. Our neglect to pray for them leave them to suffer longer in Purgatory, but it also leaves us without the aid of their prayers. St. John Vianney once remarked that if we knew the power of the Holy Souls in Purgatory with the Heart of God, “they would not be so much forgotten.”

In my personal experience, I have prayed for the souls in Purgatory. I prayed the most for them when I was in seminary and could easily visit the cemetery after supper. I became quite convinced of their prayers for me. The greatest consolations I have received for the death of people close to me, especially ones who died taking their life or in strange circumstances, have been through continued prayer for their souls. I have also found solace and help from heaven, even praying for the souls of holy persons who have died.

Let us never forget to pray for our ancestors. They can be in Purgatory for a long time, and we can even find help for our current generation through prayer for our ancestors. I am convinced that God does many marvels in our souls and for the church when we visit cemeteries and pray for the dead, especially our ancestors. God also looks very favorably upon us when we pray for the souls who have no one to pray for them. I try to pray often for the souls who have no one to pray for them, especially at Mass and before Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament. As with many things of faith, I can tell you much about them, but you will learn more through practicing them. Pray for the Holy Souls in Purgatory, and then you will understand yourself.
